THE DOOLITTLE-PARKER CORRESPONDENCE

The Doolittle-Parker correspondence on finance, is becoming more interesting, the more it is investigated. When the Judge's letter and Parker's pretended answer appeared in print, everybody saw the stamp of deception upon it. It looked too much like the County case to pass current, and finally that which was committed in darkness was brought to light, the fact becoming known that Doolittle wrote both the letter and the answer. But there seems to be another interesting point connected with the matter. In commenting upon Congressman Williams' second letter in the great triangular Doolittle-Parker-Williams correspondence, the Chicago Times says it sometimes takes only one man to carry on a correspondence, and quotes the following clincher from Mr. Williams' last letter to Doolittle:

"To show you that I am entirely serious about this, allow me to say that while in Racine, within the last three days, information was volunteered to me direct and positive which enables me to state that neither yourself nor Mr. Parker will ever deny, because you cannot do so successfully, that both your letter to him and his pretended answer to you were prepared by you and sent to your own hand writing, and that even after the correspondence was in the hands of the printer, you manipulated and changed the answer."

This is one version of the story, and it comes pretty direct, and seems to hit so squarely that the Judge has been in no haste to deny it. The Times says there is another side to the story which is not devoid of interest, one to the effect that both the Doolittle letter and the Parker letter, except the signature, were in the hand writing of Mr. Doolittle when they were given to the printer. But after both were in type, Mr. George H. Paul, of Milwaukee, who, it seems, had an inkling of what was going on, went to Racine, examined the proof, and without the knowledge or consent of either Mr. Parker or Mr. Doolittle, wrote, and the editor of the Racine paper inserted, the following addendum to Mr. Parker's sixth article in his confession of the Doolittle faith:

"I assent to this view with the assurance and understanding that such notes would become a portion of the permanent currency of the country, practically equivalent to legal tender notes in payment of all debts, public and private."

THE DOWNFALL OF DEMOCRATIC GREENBACKISM

The result of the elections on Tuesday is a declaration that Greenbackism and repudiation can never control this country. Even the coalition of the Democrats with these elements could not secure a victory. Ohio is the birth-place of the irredeemable Greenback and repudiation theory. It entered into the platforms of the Democratic party in that State long before it was conceived in other States. It gained a strong hold there, and many of the leading Democrats espousing the cause of fiat money, inflation, and repudiation. The Democracy entered the contest with the boast that they would sweep the State. The State had been gerrymandered by a Democratic Legislature into new Congressional Districts so as to prevent the Republicans from electing more than six out of twenty Congressmen. With soft money on their banners, and thirteen Democrats made Democratic each by from 4,000 to 10,000 majority, the Democrats had some ground on which to hope for a victory. But the intelligent people of Ohio, put the seal of condemnation on such work. In the face of the strongest combination that could possibly be made against the Republicans, they have carried the State ticket by a good majority, have elected ten or eleven Congressmen, including both candidates in the Cincinnati Dis-

The Result on the Congressional Candidates—Thurman's Presidential Aspirations.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Large numbers of politicians have been congregated at their headquarters during the day, in a state of feverish anxiety, which was caused by the early reports this morning that Governor Young had been defeated. At the Democratic room telegrams were received which seemed to confirm the first report. The Democrats at once became enthusiastic, and before noon, they claimed that Butterworth was also defeated, but about noon, the Republicans received news claiming the election of both by about 1,100. This evening the Republicans concede the election of Warner, Democrat, over Van Voorhees, in the Thirteenth District, by 54 majority. Ewing is also elected by about 500, which gives the Democrats a majority of one in the Ohio delegation. Both parties consider the National party as dead. The Democrats are particularly bitter against them for their double dealing. From what is known of the organization here, it is believed the object aimed at was to sell out to the highest bidder. It is acknowledged on all sides that the result of yesterday's election will prove a crushing blow at Senator Thurman's Presidential aspirations, and enhance those of Hendricks, who has carried his State safely through. Many of the old wheel-horses of the Democracy say they much regret Thurman's taking an active part in the late campaign, and his openly subscribing to the financial policy of the party will doubtless be laid up against him throughout the East. Prominent Democrats now acknowledge that it is useless to endeavor to carry this State on soft-money platform, as the Germans will not support any party with inflation proclivities.

BRIEFLETS.

—Constable Taylor's wife is quite seriously sick.

—Mr. W. M. Battle has returned from a trip to Minnesota.

—Mr. A. C. Kent left to-day for Detroit on a business trip.

—Too long tarrying at the cup generally brings blizzards.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pomeroy are visiting friends in New York.

—The head of the family is very apt to get "stove up" this time of year.

—Concordia Society will give a social party at their hall next Tuesday evening.

—The price of eggs is a strong argument in favor of a larger representation.

—Rev. Jenk L. Jones is attending a Unitarian Conference in Charlotte, Michigan.

—The Guards drill again to-night, and if the weather permits will parade the streets.

—The weather has been threatening for several days. Put it under bonds to keep the peace.

—The dogs ought to be thinned out. They have too much bark and don't leave soon enough, to suit those who strive to slumber quietly.

—The Board of Registry will now take a rest until the 23d, when they will complete their work. Every voter should see to it that his name appears on the roll of the faithful.

—Remember that Howe will be here to-morrow night, and will speak at Lippin's hall. Go early and hang to your seat. There will be a crowd. It is free to all and first come, first served.

—An interesting meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held at the Congregational church, yesterday afternoon, in which Mrs. Haire, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Little and others took part.

—A woman's hat was found on the sidewalk in the First ward this morning, and now the question is how did it come there and to whom does it belong? Is in a good state of preservation and is too good to be thrown away.

—Beloit sent up four more boarders for Sheriff Collier yesterday afternoon. One of them was the grain thief, whose doings were noticed in yesterday's Gazette, and who commences on a sixty days' stay; two were put in for tarrying too long at the bowl, and the fourth for filching a beef-steak from a butcher's stall. The quartet will be well taken care of.

—It seems to be the fall fashion to settle family disputes in public. Two belligerent females were at it on the street last evening. The cause of the disturbance seemed to be that one woman objected to her husband having another woman in his wagon. She proceeded to make her baggage in a hurry, and unloaded her goods with more haste than grace. The parties concerned were not residents of this community.

—Pete Schneider, who is one of Clinton's inn-keepers, is sorely pressed by those who claim that he has been selling inebriation without any license. Yesterday afternoon he appeared before Court Commissioner Patten in answer to a charge of this nature. The case was continued until to-morrow, he giving $150 bail. No sooner had he got this case thus fixed up, than he was pounced upon by five other similar complaints, each of which was treated in the same manner. The batch will probably be ground through together.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 49 degrees above and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 63 degrees above. Cloudy. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 34 and 50 degrees above.

The indications are, for the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys and upper lake region south and east winds, warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, rising followed by falling barometer.

ARMSTRONG'S READINGS.

At the Baptist church last evening less than a hundred and fifty people gathered to hear C. Dale Armstrong, but the audience seemed delighted especially with the mimicry and ventriloquism in which Mr. Armstrong probably has no superior. As an elocutionist he disappointed some, and his selections were not of the most judicious, perhaps, but with his great fund of mimicry and his wonderful powers as a ventriloquist, he succeeded in giving a decidedly enjoyable entertainment.

SPORTING SUNDRIES.

Hughes, the peostrian, who tramped with O'Leary, complains that he has been robbed of $1,700 by a trick by which three of his friends got him to sign a check by which they drew that amount out of the bank. He says he cannot read or write and signed the check because of false pretenses.

Yesterday at Chicago the unfinished 2:40 race was won by Jennie C, who took the last three of the six heats. Bonessett won the 2:30 race, Mazomanie being second. In the 2:25 race Calaban's Maid won. The 2:23 race was won by Dan Mace's Darby.

The Chicago defeated the Indianapolis in the exhibition game in St. Louis yesterday 4 to 1.

Guyon and Schmehl are walking for seventy-five hours in Chicago. At last accounts Guyon was ahead.

The Rockford boys were badly beaten by the Milwaukee in two games this week, one score being 23 to 8 and the other 11 to 7.

NOT OUT OF TROUBLE.

The young fellow who stole the grain from H. Cheney, of La Prairie, and who was sent up for sixty days by Justice Rogers, of Beloit, may not get out of his scrape as easily as he thought. There is some prospect of steps being taken to secure for him a place in Waupun. It is claimed that Justice Rogers had no jurisdiction in the matter, as the offense was committed in La Prairie, and that the offense was a crime of sufficient magnitude to warrant an arrest and conviction for burglary. There will doubtless be further developments in the matter. The fellow is now in jail here. He is a Bohemian, who says he is from Colorado, and that he is in search of work. He claims that the team driven by him is his own. A short time ago a fellow was caught in Milton with some stolen grain. He too had a team and answered the description of this man in many particulars. He was allowed to go his way, but if it should be proved that he is this identical chap, there will be more trouble laid up in store for him. There is considerable sharp criticism heard on the way in which Justice Rogers let him off, sixty days being a light punishment for the crime.

PIOUS PRESBYTERS.

They Gather from all Portions of the State for Their Annual Synod.

The Woman's Missionary Society To-morrow.

The Work on Hand.

The members and visitors to the annual meeting of the Synod of Wisconsin gathered to-day at the Presbyterian church in this city, they being from all parts of the State, this Synod embracing five presbyteries, the Milwaukee, consisting of the southeast portion of the State, the Wisconsin river, embracing the southwest portion, the Chippewa, embracing the northwest, the Winnebago, embracing the northeast, and the Lake Superior, embracing the north. The members commenced coming in last night, others arrived this morning, and still others will come on the later trains. They are being cared for by the citizens here, who have thrown open the doors of their houses, and bidden them enter.

The ministerial convention met this afternoon and was quite well attended. The chief features of the afternoon's session were an essay from Rev. T. C. Kirkwood, of Fond du Lac, on "The Servant of the Lord," an essay on "Wealth as estimated by the Scriptures," by Rev. H. P. Pullen, of the Winnebago presbytery, and an essay on "Inspiration of the Scriptures," by Rev. J. V. Hughes, of Kibbourn City. This evening the retiring Moderator, Rev. G. P. Nichols, will preach the opening sermon of the Synod, after which the organization will be perfected, by the election of Moderator and Temporary Clerks.

To-morrow's programme is as follows:

MORNING SESSION.
8:30 to 9:30. Devotional Exercises, led by Rev. J. C. Caldwell. Subject, "Success in the Work of the Ministry."
9:30 to 10. Synodical Business.
Treasurer's Report.
Report of Permanent Committees:
1—Home Missions and Sustentation; Rev. G. P. Nichols, Chairman.
2—Foreign Missions; W. F. Brown, Chairman.
3—Education; W. L. Rankin, Chairman.
4—Publication; Rev. D. Stuart Banks, Chairman.
5—Church Election and Manes; Rev. T. C. Kirkwood, Chairman.
6—Ministerial Relief; Rev. G. S. Woodhall, Chairman.
7—Providence; Rev. H. L. Brown, Chairman.

9—Miscellaneous Business.
10—Praying Words, Mrs. John Frankinton, Milwaukee.

In the evening there will be a grand Foreign Missionary rally at the Congregational church. Rev. T. C. Kirkwood, of Fond du Lac, will speak on "Watchman! What of the Night?" Rev. J. E. Wright, of Madison, will talk on "Woman's Work in the World's Conversion," and Rev. J. McLean, of Beloit, will speak on the text "Speak to the Children of Israel that they go Forward."

A very cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these sessions, and it is particularly desirable that the ladies of all denominations should attend the meetings, especially the day sessions, of the Missionary Society. An interesting and instructive season is expected.

The Synod will continue its sessions until Monday when adjournment will be taken.

There will be a special meeting of Western Star Lodge No. 14, T. & A. M., on Friday evening, October 11 at 7 o'clock, (work in M. degree). All members are cordially invited to be present.

J. L. Chaff, W. M.

GIT, OM, GUTEAU!

Gutau, "the eloquent Chicago lawyer" has tried it in Janesville. The Rockford Register the day before the lecture says: "Mr. Gutau lectures at Congregational Hall to-night on 'Christianity Reviewed.' Mr. Gutau is highly endorsed, and his lectures are declared to be very interesting by those who have heard them."

The day after the lecture it tells a different story:

The following communication tells its own sad story:

Editors Register—DEAR SIRS—Not a soul came to my lecture, and I have concluded to go. I have two first-class lectures and think it is a shame Rockford did not turn out. Owe you $2; will send it shortly.

C. J. GUTEAU.

Giving special attention to chronic diseases, and having a lengthened experience in their treatment, Dr. Price readily discerns the causes of disease and the proper treatment for their removal. It is the universal testimony of those who have sought Dr. Price's advice, that he is candid in what he says, and that he does not encourage the making of large doctors' bills unless there is good ground to hope for benefit from his treatment.

If skill is proved by success, then Dr. Price possesses it. On Saturday and Sunday, October 19 and 20, Dr. Price will be at Janesville, Myers House.

CITY NOTICES.

The ladies of Janesville and vicinity are invited to the first opening of fall and winter millinery goods, on Friday, October 11, at the rooms of Miss Gerie Griswold North Main street, rooms formerly occupied by Mrs. Fritz.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Ladies and Gents will always find the nicest and cheapest Box and Staple Stationery in the city and Sutherland's Bookstore, No. 29 Main street.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning, will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, nervousness, habitual constiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, loss of spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three boxes will relieve you.

Fever and Ague Cured for 50 Cents.

Dr. Swayne's Fever and Ague Pills, (without calomel or quinine), are a quick and sure cure in every case for ague and fever, intermittent and remittent fever, and all diseases having their origin from Malaria. They are a great tonic and preventive as well as cure of all complaints peculiar to malarious, marshy and miasmatic districts. They act on the liver, and brace up the system to a vigorous healthy condition. Notwithstanding these pills are sold for one-half the price that other ague cures are sold for, yet we will warrant them as effective in all cases as any pills or mixture, let the price or compound be what they may; and being entirely free from all minerals, their use leaves no bad effects, as in the case of many other remedies. Sent by mail to any address on receipt of price, (in currency or postage stamps), 50 cents a box, three boxes $1.25, six boxes $2.50. Address letters, Dr. Swayne & Son 330 North Sixth St., Philadelphia.

Excessive Heat.

And unwholesome diet at this season of the year may speedily carry you to the grave. Parker's Ginger Tonic, by its corrective action on the entire digestive apparatus, will not only unfailingly cure Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, Infantum, Colic, Cramps, Spasms, etc., but will prevent those dangerous disorders from attacking the system. It may save your life, and should always be kept in the house. This pleasant remedy is unequalled for teething children, nursing mothers. Possessing many additional virtues of other valuable roots, it is far superior to Essences of Ginger, without their constipating effects, and while more invigorating than liquors never intoxicates, nor creates any desire for stimulants. It cures Dyspepsia, and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Watkiness, Sour Stomach, Constipation, Liver Disorders, Furred Tongue, Low Spirits, Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains, enables you to enjoy the fruits and vegetables of the season without fear, and gives comfort after a hearty meal. Buy a $1.00 bottle of your druggist, A. J. Roberts, or a sample bottle at 15 cents, and test its extraordinary merits.

Itching Piles.

The symptoms are moisture, like perspiration, intense itching, increased by scratching, very distressing, particularly at night as if pin worms were crawling in and about the rectum, the private parts are sometimes affected; if allowed to continue, very serious results may follow. Dr. Swayne's All Healing Ointment is a pleasant sure cure.

HOME CURES—We were great sufferers from itching piles, the symptoms were as above described; the use of Swayne's Ointment in a short time made a perfect cure.

J. W. CHRIST, Boot and Shoe House, 331 N. Second.

T. C. WEYMAN, Hatter, 8 South Eighth Street, Philadelphia.

Reader, if you are suffering from this distressing complaint, or Tetter, Itch, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Barber's Itch, any Crusty Skin Eruption, use Swayne's Ointment and be cured. Sent by mail to any address on receipt of price, (in currency or postage stamps), 50 cents a box, three boxes $1.25. Address letters, Dr. Swayne & Son, 330 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia. No charge for advice. Sold by leading druggists.

Tobacco Market.

[From the United States Tobacco Journal.]

New York, October 5, 1878.

Total transactions 1,925 cases.
A great portion of the sales made were to sugar manufacturers, while for export but a few hundred cases were taken. Outside of low grade Pennsylvania, at comparatively high figures, there is nothing being offered for the purpose, hence the quietude. A prominent feature was the sale of 500 cases of 1877 Connecticut, mostly wrappers, at 18 1/2 18 1/2 cents. One prominent Western street firm purchased some 300 cases from another packing firm in Burlington. These sales have greatly encouraged holders of 77 Connecticut wrappers, who anticipate a great demand for these goods in the near future. Selected 1877 Pennsylvania wrappers realized as high as 40 cents from manufacturers. We report sales as follows:

CONNECTICUT AND MASSACHUSETTS
Crop '77: 200 cases, mostly Connecticut wrappers, at 15 1/2 15 1/2 cents; seconds at 11 cents to 13 cents.
Crop '76: 70 cases, running, 11 cents to 16 cents.

WISCONSIN
Crop '77: 200 cases, of which 173 were for export, at 18 1/2 18 1/2 cents; balance for home trade, 9 1/2 9 1/2 cents running.

HAWAII.
Market moderately active with sales of some 200 bales. Prices remain firm. An auction sale of 100 bales of damaged goods realized the astonishingly high figures of from 90 cents to $1.30.

TODAY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

Know All Men!

By these presents that I, John Wells, of the town of Rock County, in the People's Tea and Coffee Co. hereby agree to give to my son, Albert Wells, full right and liberty to his time, until he shall be of lawful age, and to do business for himself without any interference from me, to correct his own ways, or other claims that may arise in his favor in all his business transactions, and I also give notice that I will not be responsible for any debt which he may contract. Given under my hand, this 1st day of October, 1878.

JOHN WELLS.

NOTICE.
